Creating a New OUUC Group or Activity or Initiative

Please give this completed form to the Accountable Person leading the Ministry area you believe is the best home for your group/activity/initiative.

The appropriate Accountable Person will determine whether your group/activity/initiative fulfills needs of the congregation, is well connected to our congregation’s Mission and Ends, and there are resources available to support it. If this is so, then the group/activity/initiative will be approved.

Questions? Talk with the appropriate Accountable Person.

Olympia Unitarian Universalist Congregation
Mission / Ends/ Ministries

Mission Statement

We are a liberal religious community that opens minds, fills hearts and transforms lives.

Ends

The Olympia Unitarian Universalist Congregation is a liberal religious congregation where:

- We expand our knowledge, deepen our understanding, and strengthen and live our Unitarian Universalist identities.
- Our hearts are filled with experiences of wonder, awe, and connection to the spirit of life and love.
- People of all ages, identities, and circumstances are welcomed and connected in our loving community.
- The Olympia Unitarian Universalist Congregation responds to the needs of a changing congregation and world.
- Our lives and those of the larger community are meaningfully changed through our collaborative work for justice.
- We advocate for environmental justice and practice care for the Earth.

OUUC Ministry Areas:

Spiritual Life Ministry; Thomas Perchlik, Accountable Person, minister@ouuc.org
Provides for the spiritual life of the congregation and its members and friends of all ages and circumstances, opening them to wonder and awe; facilitating their connections to the spirit of life and love; transforming and equipping them to respond to the needs of the world.

Faith Development Ministry; Sara Lewis, Accountable Person, faithdevelopmentministry@ouuc.org
OUUC’s Faith Development Ministry expands knowledge, deepens understanding and strengthens Unitarian Universalist identity in people of all ages and circumstances.

Community Life Ministry; Bonnie Guyer Graham, Accountable Person, communitylifeministry@ouuc.org
OUUC’s Community Life Ministry attends to the health of the congregation as a living, growing body. It creates and maintains a congregational culture where all who step through the doors are welcomed, accepted, and encouraged in their spiritual journeys. It develops and provides multiple pathways to strengthen and deepen participants’ connection and commitment to their own growth, to one another, to OUUC, to Unitarian Universalism, and to the wider world, equipping all for leadership through discernment and development of their gifts.

Faith in Action Ministry; Carol McKinley, Accountable Person, faithinactionministry@ouuc.org
OUUC’s Faith in Action Ministry responds to the needs of our world through service, financial support, education, witness, and advocacy creating meaningful transformation in us and the world through collaborative work for justice, environmental justice and care for the earth.

Resource Ministry; Darlene Sarkela, Accountable Person, resourceministry@ouuc.org
OUUC’s Resource Ministry enables and supports the Mission and Ends of OUUC by providing essential infrastructure and resource management functions, including overall church administration, facilities management, communications systems, and human relations.
