LEADERSHIP AT OLYMPIA UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST CONGREGATION

More information available at OUUC's website: <http://ouuc.org/who-we-are/governance/>

THE CONGREGATION

The Olympia Unitarian Universalist Congregation operates under the principles of congregational polity. This means we are independent, self-supporting and governed by our own members. Responsibilities of Membership: A member shall accept responsibility for the well-being of the OUUC community through contributions of time, energy, and financial resources. B. Members shall not represent themselves as speaking on behalf of the Congregation unless authorized in accordance with Board of Trustees (Board) policy.

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

According to our bylaws, the Board of Trustees functions on behalf of, and is at all times subject to the will of the membership. It governs using a Policy Governance model, meaning the Board is visionary, with its primary roles being 1) the articulation of the differences the congregation wants to make in the world and for whom and 2) assuring that those differences are accomplished. Besides the articulation of the Ends, the Board's other functions include linking with the congregation, writing and revising board policies necessary to help the organization achieve its Ends, delegating the management and operations of the organization to an individual or team, and monitoring the work toward accomplishing the Ends.

THE EXECUTIVE

At OUUC, the Minister is designated by the Board to be the Executive or operational leader of the church. The Accountable Persons Team, who reports to the Executive, is both responsible for and has the authority to ensure that the resources and programs within their purview are directed to assuring the congregation's health and meeting its Ends. The Accountable Persons Team's members each lead one of the congregation's Five Ministries: OUUC's Spiritual Life Ministry, Faith Development Ministry, Community Life Ministry, Faith in Action Ministry, and Resource Ministry. Most church committees fall within the purview of one of the five ministries.
