

MAKING CONNECTIONS

OLYMPIA UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST CONGREGATION

We are a liberal religious community that opens minds, fills hearts, and transforms lives.

- Mission Statement

DISCOVER A GROUP OR ACTIVITY THAT WOULD:
OPEN YOUR MIND,
FILL YOUR HEART,
TRANSFORM LIVES...

WELCOME

Visitors and new comers often talk about how much meaning they draw from their experience of Sunday worship, our congregation’s social justice work and the religious education activities for children and youth.

Long time members draw meaning from worship and social justice actions and delight in the many learning opportunities for all ages, and the chance to build relationships. One of the strengths of our congregation is the breadth and quality of opportunities for growth and meaning created and supported by our members. We are a vital religious community.

How can I make connections in this active community? How can I find what I need most at this point in my life?

This directory can help. Find opportunities to grow and connect created by our members, with a short description and the name of someone you can contact to learn more. How to find out more? Check the weekly Wednesday email for upcoming events, and talk with people following each Sunday service over a cup of coffee.

What I know is that the value you find here at OUUC will be deepened as you make connections and build relationships.

SPIRITUAL PRACTICE OPPORTUNITIES

CAREGIVERS

We welcome OUUC people who see themselves as caregivers, usually for a family member. We meet monthly. Contact Rev. Carol McKinley, Affiliated Minister faithinactionministry@ouuc.org

OUUC CHOIR

The OUUC Choir rehearses on Wednesday evenings from 7 to 9pm. The choir participates every other week in the Sunday morning worship services. In addition, the choir presents two major concerts each year, and participates in other civic and religious celebrations in the greater community as opportunities arise. There is no need to audition in order to participate in the choir. If you are interested participating in the choir please contact Contact Troy Fisher, Music Director troyisnever@comcast.net

COVENANT CIRCLES

Each month Covenant Circles meet to engage in the spiritual practice of reflection and discussion, with questions that explore the Soul Matters theme of the month. Members who sign up are making a commitment to their group, which means making every effort possible to have good attendance and participation and to be in covenant with one another. The Circle meets in private homes (address will be messaged to participants). Contact Sara Lewis, Director of Lifespan Religious Education dre@ouuc.org

SATURDAY MORNING VOICE CLASS

The Saturday Morning Voice Class meets each Saturday morning from 10am to 11:30am in the church Sanctuary. It is an opportunity to work on developing and improving singing techniques. It is an opportunity to participate in some great community singing from a wide variety of musical styles. It is a great opportunity to improve your overall emotional and physical well being. There is no audition required. If you want to do some singing please just show up. You do not need to make a commitment to participating every week. Once a month we sing at a local retirement community. If you are interested please Contact Troy Fisher, Music Director troyisnever@comcast.net

SOUL MATTERS DISCUSSION CIRCLE

Everyone welcome – Soul Matters Discussion Circle meets each second Sunday, following the 11 am service for lunch and discussion. We meet to discuss and reflect upon each month's Soul Matters theme. People are welcome to attend as many of the monthly Circle discussions as they like. Soul Matters packets containing reflections, questions, spiritual exercises, and links to additional resources are available each month in the Commons. Contact Sara Lewis, Director of Lifespan Religious Education dre@ouuc.org

OUUC YOUNG SINGERS

Young Singers is an opportunity for Religious Education age member to work with music director, Troy Fisher. The young singers prepare musical offerings that are incorporated into the Sunday morning worship services. We meet at 9am on Saturday mornings and rehearse for 45 minutes. If you are interested please Contact Troy Fisher, Music Director troyisnever@comcast.net

LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES

ADULT EDUCATION COMMITTEE

The Adult Education Program offers a wide range of classes to help members and others in their spiritual development and in a broad variety of life skills, as well as classes to broaden knowledge in specific areas, or just for fun. The Committee reviews ideas for classes, finds and assists instructors, and publishes seasonal catalogs of class offerings. Class examples include: furthering knowledge of UU history and teachings and of other world religions, meditation and mindfulness, end-of-life issues, current social justice and environmental advocacy, outdoor nature and gardening, how we fit into the larger universe, music, travel for personal growth, and disaster preparedness. Contact Gary Worthington gsworthington@comcast.net

LEARNING RIGHT RELATIONS

Join the continuing search for appropriate expressions of right relationships with the original people of the Salish Sea. During three 3-hour monthly gatherings the class will meet with members of the Nisqually, Puyallup and Squaxin Island Tribes to come to know the path of right relations and to nurture the growing interest of non-tribal people in becoming involved with the Tribes in useful ways. Committees lead particular areas of ministry or programs. By joining one of the Committees listed on page 8, you become another one of this congregation's leaders.

GOVERNANCE

THE CONGREGATION

The Olympia Unitarian Universalist Congregation operates under the principles of congregational polity. This means we are independent, self-supporting and governed by our own members. Responsibilities of Membership: A member shall accept responsibility for the well-being of the OUUC community through contributions of time, energy, and financial resources. B. Members shall not represent themselves as speaking on behalf of the Congregation unless authorized in accordance with Board of Trustees (Board) policy.

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

According to our bylaws, the Board of Trustees functions on behalf of, and is at all times subject to the will of the membership. It governs using a Policy Governance model, meaning the Board is visionary, with its primary roles being 1) the articulation of the differences the congregation wants to make in the world and for whom and 2) assuring that those differences are accomplished. Besides the articulation of the Ends, the Board's other functions include linking with the congregation, writing and revising board policies necessary to help the organization achieve its Ends, delegating the management and operations of the organization to an individual or team, and monitoring the work toward accomplishing the Ends.

THE EXECUTIVE

At OUUC, the Minister is designated by the Board to be the Executive or operational leader of the church. The Accountable Persons Team, who reports to the Executive, is both responsible for and has the authority to ensure that the resources and programs within their purview are directed to assuring the congregation's health and meeting its Ends. The Accountable Persons Team's members each lead one of the congregation's Five Ministries: OUUC's Spiritual Life Ministry, Faith Development Ministry, Community Life Ministry, Faith in Action Ministry, and Resource Ministry. Most church committees fall within the purview of one of the five ministries.
