

From Bobbe & Mike Murray : her infectious laugh and undying love and support of Troy

From Pat Sonnenstuhl : An inspiring spirit for all of us.

From Jane Brody : Loved her irreverence and sense of humor!

From Gail James : Dorothy showed how we should all live. Zest, happiness, loving and helping people, loving the earth and all its inhabitants.

From Ann Colowick : I loved her joy, playfulness, outspokenness, and love of fun.

From Barb Carey : I felt very welcomed and energized doing Sunday coffee with Dorothy.

From Diana Larsen-Mills : She always added a spark to a gathering.

From Sharon Love : She was so funny and so real. I will always remember our trip to the zoo!

From Gail James : You could not be shocked at what vocabulary Dorothy chose to use that day. Look out! All those words your mom told you not to use might just pop out of her mouth.

From Des McG : Hilarious car rides with her on the way to church. We always took the long way to make them last.

From Wendy Tanner : She brought fun and wit to every gathering. She loved to flirt and enjoyed Curtis' company! :)

From Gail James : I loved seeing Ruby in the photos. She adored that pup and was distraught when she lost her.

From Theo Pauline Nestor she/her : thank you all for being here. my mom would be so happy to know how many of you made time to celebrate her. thank you carol and Gail. I loved your remembrances.

From Beth Albertson : Dorothy was one of the first people I met at the church, and I remember her participation in many different ways. She will be missed.

From Gail James : It was a joy to even know your mom for the short time I had the pleasure. She was so proud of "her girls."

From Theo Pauline Nestor she/her : and many thanks to Rev Mary for the beautiful service and to Troy for the gorgeous music but also for playing with my mom.

From Diana Finch : She was so much fun. Never a dull moment and always a delightful comment or comeback.

From Sam Merrill : Dorothy was always a friendly and welcoming neighbor when Susan and I would meet in neighborhood walks -- to chat about UU and our shared political views -- not to mention Ruby on the long unwieldy leash.

From Pat Sonnenstuhl : A very special honoring. Thank you all!
