UU History and Theology Class

UU History and Theology: What Moves Us This program peels back the doctrine-rich theological language that can prevent us from affirming our faith experiences with one another and in the wider world. Through shared direct experiences and reflection exercises, readings and lessons, and ethical deliberations, What Moves Us creates an adult faith journey for Unitarian Universalists who want to preach and teach what they already experience but have not been able to articulate: the spiritual power of our faith.

Two Sessions, Saturday Nov. 14 and Sat. Dec. 5th, 3-4:30pm

Me and White Supremacy Class

Me and White Supremacy led by Rev. Carol McKinley and Sara Lewis A 28 Day learning challenge using the book "Me and White Supremacy" by Layla F. Saad. This program will explore the topic of the book through journaling, daily check-ins on a GroupMe channel, and four zoom gatherings. Participants may join in on just the GroupMe channel, just the zoom gatherings, or both, depending on their preference. Five Sessions: Mondays 7-8:30, Nov 2, 9, 16, and 23
