

From Gail James she/her : Evey and Ruth helped me learn that acceptance is better than intolerance.

From Fred Kellogg : Evey was a happy, hearty generous New Yorker, never afraid to be real. Thank you to the members of her family for sharing memories of the '64 Worlds Fair, reviving many memories of my own New York youth.

From Curtis & Wendy Tanner : Evey showed us all Love.

From Gary & Sandra Worthington,he/him.she/her : Evey was in a Small Group Ministry group that met in our home for most of a year. We were very glad for the opportunity to get to know her better through the frank conversations. We'll miss the many interactions with her at church. Of course, the wedding, and events such as one of Ruth's birthday dinners were fun and memorable also!

From Curtis & Wendy Tanner : Evey loved food, and we always loved sharing a meal w/ she and Ruth.

From Riley McLaughlin : I've known and occasionally worked with Evey for many years. My kid, Ian, met her when he was a youth. When Ian began to transition (my Renaissance kid), and it was time to grow into a new name, Evelyn was the only choice, which made Evey happy. So as they/she moves forward, she will carry Evey's name well into the future. This makes me happy and very proud. Thank you Evey! Lots of love!

From Mo Canny : We were in a UU discussion group with Evey....and loved her insight and knowledge and boldness...she was delightful ...and she was very kind to us during a difficult time...We miss you Evey, ❤️ Mo and Kent

From Gail James she/her : Evey! A champion egg cream maker. I never got a taste though.
