

“Trust: The Lost and Found”

with Rev. Vincent Lachina

Sunday, April 30, 2023

Few things are more important to a minister than to have the trust of others. It would be complicated, if not impossible to have any credibility if there is no trust. Sadly, once trust is lost, there is a vacuum of belief that has a lasting effect on a hearer. Almost everyone knows how trust is lost, but perhaps a lesson to learn is how to find or build trust. The message prepared for you at OUUC is a focus on how you as individuals and you as a body of church goers can establish and build trust in the world in which you live.

Reflection questions:

- Was there something in the service this morning that spoke to you personally? Would you share that with us?
- Did something happen in your life this week that made you laugh? What was that?
- If you could respond to today's message with one word, what would that be?
