“Moving on from Walden Pond”

With Rev. Sara Lewis

Many of us have found inspiration from the teachings of Henry David Thoreau and other Transcendentalists, but how does this sort of individualism answer the needs of today? How can we move on from Walden Pond and toward a radical mutuality that still retains what was good at Walden Pond?

Reflection Questions:

1. How can we honor the pain of these times?
2. Where do you see communal healing and justice work being done?
3. What is your own next step (for renewal, for community, for civil disobedience, or otherwise)?

Share the Plate Offering: Our Share the Plate organization for January and February is Homes First:

In the past 35 years, Homes First has provided safe, clean, stable, and affordable homes to more than 5,000 community members who are very low and extremely low-income. Today, your attention and support will make all the difference. Homes First work includes: making emergency repairs to uninhabitable housing units; covering operating expenses during this revenue shortfall; maintaining current program and services; and covering compliance and safety upgrades.

If you write a check, please note "PLEDGE" if it is a pledge payment. All other donations in the basket will benefit the Share the Plate program.

- Checks can be mailed to: 2306 East End St NW, Olympia, WA 98502
- Donate online at: <https://onrealm.org/OUUC/give/offering>
- Donate by text: Text "OUUC offering" to 73256 to give using your mobile device. Messages and data rates may apply. Message frequency varies. Text HELP to 73256 for help. Text STOP to 73256 to cancel
